

The GodSense Devotional

PRINCIPLE STATEMENTS

1. The more we simplify our lives, the deeper we can go into the richness of relationships and the satisfaction of spiritual connection.
2. God reveals His will only to those who love him enough to do whatever he says.
3. Hearing and obeying God frees us from the tyranny of our own resourcefulness.
4. A heart commitment allows us to take the step in front of us without needing to know the details of the journey.
5. God lavishly rewards a life submitted to him.
6. Once we stop running from truth and turn, instead, to seek it, it will be found.
7. When we think we have discovered truth, we need to look one layer deeper to see if what we have found is truth from God or a lie from man.
8. Truth revealed is truth revered.
9. God's truth is a mystery revealed and a power released.
10. The goal of my soul
Is to cling to my King!
11. True life that is fresh and free and full is found only in undistracted connection to God.
12. Turning toward God puts me face-to-face with him. He draws me closer one step at a time.
13. Just for today, choose to have an attitude of joy and hope.
Tomorrow making that choice will be easier.
14. What seems like a risk to me is no risk at all under the watchful and guiding eye of my heavenly Father.
15. God's healing touch can reach only to the buried pains that we are willing to expose.
The rest remain hidden and unhealed.

16. Our personal wholeness and our devotion to God are intricately and irreversibly intertwined.
17. The life of the Spirit does not mean perfection, but it means continually moving toward that goal.
18. In order to come to the end of our lives in satisfied fulfillment, we must stay in touch with God's Spirit within us today.
19. Our faith is effective only if the one in whom we have placed it is both powerful and loving.
20. Having a problem we cannot solve will either turn us bitter or turn us to God.
21. Getting to know God is getting to know he is trustworthy.
22. We don't have to have all the answers.
We just have to know the one who does.
23. Our suffering is the stethoscope through which we hear the heartbeat of God.
24. Real life begins when we learn to experience the present moment.
25. Fears, worries, and regrets are like clouds that cover the beauty of our lives.
26. We would be foolish to focus only on the present moment if we did not believe that someone wiser and stronger than we are is in charge of our lives.
27. If we think that God doesn't like to have fun, we have never really looked at a duck-billed platypus.
28. We don't want to get to the end of our lives and find out that we missed living!
29. Living by faith is as unnatural to humans as is swimming under water.
30. We don't have to be perfect; we just have to be his.
31. God breathes peace into my soul.
32. We can know with confidence that we will become what God has always had in mind for us to be.
33. Hope is the light that keeps us moving forward even when we are walking through darkness and desperation.
34. You are God's favorite child!

35. The greatest gift we can give is our time.
36. God is not hiding. Go ahead and get to know him.
37. No personal sacrifice we make for God will go unrewarded.
38. Find a teacher and learn all you can. Then find a student and teach all you know.
39. The gifts of devotion we give to God open the passageway to heaven so that his love can flow freely back to us.
40. Our lives must be about God alone, not God and . . .
41. Adoration is an outward expression of our inward devotion to God.
42. Worship that doesn't move us probably won't move God either!
43. Love, by its very nature, must give gifts!
44. Worship shared is worship magnified.
45. Worship is a gift we give to God.
Intimacy and blessings are its rewards.
46. God loves to celebrate!
47. God came to earth to let us know that our happiness is very important to him.
48. Joy sneaks up when you least expect it.
49. The true joy of God meets our deepest soul-needs.
50. It's easier to love mankind than it is to love the human beings who share our daily lives!
51. Have the time of your life! But do so in light of the eternity of your life.
52. We don't know how exhilarating it is to fly until we take off!
